Description of Program Service One

Connections Campaign - Offers information and support for patients, their families and friends. These services are provided through the website, toll-free Helpline, Buddy Network and Chat.

The Buddy Network is a peer-to-peer support system that links survivors with survivors and caregivers with caregivers for one-on-one support. Buddies can then share their experience by e-mail, telephone, or any way they may choose.

The Chat program offers real-time online group support. The Alliance hosts a number of weekly chats where a variety of topics are discussed.
